by Linda Hodge, Publisher

Upon recommendation of superintendent Kelly Cobb, the board members present voted to approve several personnel actions, including both certificated and support personnel.

Effective July 1, Tami Crosby will be the system's new student services coordinator, and Holli Richardson will take on the new role as special education coordinator for the school system.

Book signing set for 10 a.m. at Elba Public Library

Elba native Robert Inman coming to Elba to celebrate release of new novel, Villages

Elba native Robert Inman will celebrate the release of his latest novel, Villages, with a book signing Friday, April 4, at the Elba Public Library (406 Simmons St.) beginning at 10 a.m. The event is free and open to the public. Livingston Press will release Villages in trade paper (ISBN: 978-1-60489-388-5, 195 pages, $19.95) and eBook ($9.95) editions in April.

Acclaimed novelist Robert Inman delivers an extraordinary—and extraordinarily moving—tale of hope, courage, and healing in his latest novel, Villages. Villages introduces protagonist Jonas Boulware, a young veteran who returns from war wounded in body and spirit.

"To see a world in a grain of sand," What William Blake expressed in poetry, Robert Inman captures in prose in his exquisite new novel, Villages, said Bill Whitaker, CBS News 60 Minutes. "Twenty-one year old Jonas Boulware is in a dition coordinator for the school system. Crosby, who currently serves as special education coordinator for Coffee County Schools, was in attendance for Tuesday's meeting, and she said she is very excited to take on the new role of student services coordinator with Coffee County Schools.

Richardson currently serves as principal for New Brockton Elementary School.

Additional employments approved by the board during Tuesday's called meeting included the hiring of Leanne Matherly to be the math coach at New Brockton Elementary School for the 2025-2026 school year. Also, Jackson Baker was hired as a TEAMS teacher for Zion Chapel School for the 2025-2026 school year.

The board approved the resignation of Dillon Davis as a TEAMS teacher for Zion Chapel, effective May 23, 2025.

As for support personnel, the board accepted the resignation of Melodie Bourne, secretary at New Brockton High School, who is retiring June 1st. This action was followed by the approval to hire Catherine Bond as the new secretary for NBHS for the 2025-2026 school year.

world of hurt—physically, emotionally, psychologically—when he reluctantly returns to his small southern town from deployment in the Middle East. He finds his hometown is no escape from the pain he's trying to blot out, but by facing the passions of his past and present, Jonas begins to see a world of possibilities and a path toward healing."

An unforgettable story of love, bravery, and hope, Villages sheds light on the serious, painful, often deadly issue of Post

Traumatic Stress Disorder. Informed by Inman's research in speaking with former combat veterans who told of lingering mental and emotional problems and of the lack of treatment and support available from the Veterans Administration, Villages is a gripping novel that reads like non-fiction. With rich character development, masterful plotting, and a seamless storyline, Villages is a tale destined to stay with readers long after the final page is turned.

Inman is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of The University of Alabama with a Master of Fine Arts in creative writing. He is the author of six novels, six motion pictures for television, and eight published stage plays. He began his writing career at his hometown weekly newspaper in high school and continued it through 30 years as a television journalist and newspaper columnist.

He told the players it would be the relationships they would remember most from their days of playing football for Elba.

"The bond with each other and the life lessons learned are the true rewards from playing this game," Sieving said.

Before passing out individual awards to the team members, Coach Sieving also thanked his coaching staff and their wives, and he especially thanked Susan Barnes for all she does for the school's football program.

NBPD searching for owners of firearms in evidence storage

The New Brockton Police Department has announced it has 29 functioning firearms in the department's evidence storage that it would like to trade for the purchase of new equipment for the department. Many of these firearms do not have a case number or other identifying information. Therefore, the department is advertising that it has the firearms available to be claimed before Thursday, March 27, 2025. If no one claims any of the items before that date, the department will trade the firearms for new equipment for the department's officer, according to New Brockton Police investigator Jeremy Thomas.

"We will not relinquish any firearm to an individual without some sort of proof of ownership. A sales receipt or other form of ownership must be provided to claim any of these products," Thomas said.

For more information, call the New Brockton Police Department and ask to speak to Investigator Jeremy Thomas or Chief Dale Grimes.

Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Publisher

Both the Elba and Jack communities have new "royalty" representation now after queens were crowned last weekend for Miss Elba and Miss Zion Chapel. As the photos (of the winners) from each pageant indicates, there is plenty of beauty to be found and seen. However, the most beautiful story from the pageants came from reports we received by those in attendance of the Miss Elba pageants. There were contestants on stage as the winners were being announced that continuously clapped and cheered for the others as each's name was called out. Photos were snapped of these young ladies showing pure joy and happiness for others...now, that is what we call a real win! Not only did these young ladies reveal their personal good character in their actions, but they also showed that something obviously is being done 'right' at home by the parents and/or guardians. We could not help but smile knowing there is still plenty of 'good' right here in our community, and we hope the actions of those young ladies from last weekend will spread to others. Cheering for one another is an admirable trait...we should all follow the example these young ladies have set!

It is our understanding that both trucks utilized to pickup trash placed out by the roadways in Elba were recently down for repair at the same time, which caused the trash piles to begin growing around town. Well...the good news is that at last report, trucks were up and running again! So, if you've had a trash pile awaiting pickup, our guess is you can expect that to be taken care of pretty soon now...if now already. One of the downfalls of a small town is keeping equipment up and running, especially if that equipment is old. While we all love to see new, pretty things added to a city to make it more appealing to others (i.e. attractions, monuments, etc.), the truth is that it really is more important to keep the equipment going that helps keep the streets clean more than it is to have those things. Again, we especially believe this if those "pretty, attractive" things cost large amounts of money rather than being donated or acquired through grant programs. The equipment needed to keep a city running properly is not cheap by any means, and that is why we rely on our city leaders to make those big decisions on the best way(s) to spend the taxpayer dollars. Ensuring that equipment is properly maintained and taken care of is one of those things the leaders should and must put at the forefront. If a department is good with its equipment, look to another that needs to help. If equipment needs are growing, pass on some frivolous expenditures to make way for the most needed purchases. It's not an easy job, but one that must be taken seriously by those who accept the oath of office. We've said all this to make one simple point...there are times that equipment breakdowns are just going to happen. Everyone must be patient during those times. However, when those breakdowns become more and more frequent then it becomes the task of the elected leaders to make some tough decisions. What departmental "wish" do we pass on this time to make way for another departmental "need"? What beautification project do we put on hold to allow monies to go towards necessary purchases. Again, we recognize these are not easy decisions to be tasked with, but they are required of those sitting in those leadership seats. That's why you don't see us running for any public office. We have a hard enough time making those hard decisions at our own home and business. We certainly don't want to be tasked with making those big decisions with public dollars! Yet...we do think it may be past time for the city to consider finding a way to purchase a new trash truck.

House Passes $192 million Tax Cut Package

The Alabama House of Representatives Tuesday of this week passed a $192 million tax cut package. The package includes legislation aimed at reducing the cost of groceries, supporting senior citizens on fixed incomes, and cutting taxes on earned income.

The package passed includes:
HB386 - Accelerates the Grocery Tax Cut by an additional 1%, bringing the total reduction to 2% since 2023. This would result in an additional estimated $123 million in annual savings for Alabama families. At 2%, the Grocery Tax Cut amounts to a $246 million tax cut.

HB387 - Removes the provision that currently prevents local governments from reducing their grocery tax.

HB388 - Doubles the state's tax exemption for withdrawals from defined contribution retirement plans, increasing it from $6,000 to $12,000. HB388 amounts to a $44.8 million tax cut.

HB389 - Increases the income floor and the amount of the optional standard deduction and increases the income threshold for the maximum dependent exemption, further reducing the state income tax burdens for Alabamians. HB389 amounts to $23.8 million tax cut.

Governor Kay Ivey signs Senate Bill 67 to further elevate Veteran needs in Alabama

Governor Kay Ivey on Tuesday signed Senate Bill 67, sponsored by Senator Andrew Jones and Representative Ed Oliver, to further elevate veteran needs in Alabama.

"Alabama's veterans deserve our very best, and I am grateful to the Alabama Legislature for its resounding support of this important legislation," said Governor Ivey. "We will use this new structure to focus on what matters most — serving those who sacrificed so much for our freedoms — our veterans and their families."

The law aligns the governance structure of the Alabama Department of Veterans Affairs (ADVA) with that of other agencies in the governor's cabinet, bringing even more accountability.

"Elevating the commissioner of the Department of Veterans Affairs to a cabinet-level position is certainly the right path forward for Alabama when it comes to better serving and supporting our veterans," said Sen. Jones. "I want to thank Governor Ivey for her leadership on this issue, as well as my colleagues in the Legislature for prioritizing veteran needs in our state."

The legislation contains two structural reforms that will pave the way for a collaborative reset of the ADVA and the State Board of Veterans Affairs (SBVA).

"I want to thank Governor Ivey for signing SB67 into law," said Rep. Oliver. "I look forward to working collectively with her office, the Legislature, the Department of Veterans Affairs, the State Board of Veterans Affairs and the Veteran Service Organizations on identifying opportunities to improve the quality of life for veterans through providing more efficient and expanded services."

The new law allows the governor to directly appoint and supervise the Alabama Department of Veterans Affairs commissioner, ensuring that the Department's leadership aligns with the governor's vision for veteran services. This change will better leverage executive-branch resources to address pressing veteran needs — ranging from mental health and employment to education and beyond.

SB67 gives the governor more authority over the membership of the SBVA, which will shift from an oversight body to an advisory one similar to the advisory boards at various other cabinet agencies. The law gives veteran services organizations (VSOs) 60 days to provide new nominees to the governor for appointment to the board. After that, the governor may appoint a veteran of her choosing in certain circumstances, including if, for any reason, a vacancy occurs on the board.

The governor will communicate with the leadership of each of the currently recognized VSOs to begin the restructure. Governor Ivey looks forward to continued collaboration and further elevating the needs of all of Alabama's 400,000 veterans.

"I truly appreciate the collaborative relationship we have forged with VSOs to achieve final passage of this legislation. I look forward to working with all of the VSOs in the hopes of assembling a new State Board of Veterans Affairs that can effectively advocate for the wide range of needs of our state's veterans and their families," added Governor Ivey.

After signing SB67, Governor Ivey also announced she is appointing Brigadier General Jeffrey Newton to serve as commissioner.

"Brigadier General Newton has earned this important job, and I am more than confident he will work to ensure our state better serves all of our 400,000 veterans. He most recently served as interim commissioner of the ADVA and previously worked in the Department to assist veterans and their families receive state and federal benefits," said Governor Ivey. "I am grateful Jeff has answered the call to serve yet again, and I look forward to working with him to ensure Alabama is the number one state for veterans to live, work and raise a family."

Prior to joining the ADVA, he was the director of the Joint Staff of the Alabama National Guard responsible for joint military operations relating to state and national emergencies. His 41-year military career with the United States Air Force and the Alabama Air National Guard included numerous overseas deployments with the 117th Air Refueling Wing located in Birmingham, Alabama, as well as supporting Operations Iraqi Freedom, Enduring Freedom and Noble Eagle.

His major military awards include the Air Force Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion of Merit, the Air Force and Army Commendation Medals and the Alabama Distinguished Service Medal. In November 2021, he was inducted into the United States Air Force's Enlisted Heritage Hall — Wall of Achievers. He is a graduate of Samford University and Auburn University.

"I am humbled and grateful to be appointed to the Governor's Cabinet and join her team. I look forward to working with other departments and cabinet officials as we continue to provide first-class support for Alabama Veterans and their families, as we have done for the past 80 years," said Brigadier General Newton. "Several major projects are already being coordinated with the Governor's Office, highlighting our commitment to make Alabama the most veteran friendly state in the nation."

Brigadier General Newton's appointment became effective Wednesday, March 19, 2025.

The Unique Needs of Widowers

While women and men both feel grief over the loss of a spouse, widowers often have a unique set of needs. This typically stems from the fact that while a woman may have many friends she can lean on following the loss of a spouse, a man may have lost his best friend and closest companion all at once.

Perhaps the saying "Women mourn - men replace" has its roots in intense loneliness caused by a lack of previously established close friendships. It has been frequently asked whether a widower would be as driven to hurriedly replace his wife and best friend if he had someone with whom he could share his grief.

Men face unique problems as widowers. Many of their everyday needs were probably provided by a wife. Because they are not as likely to be able to take care of themselves as widows, their health and well-being can be severely affected.

Widowers may be immersed in feelings they never knew existed and may exhibit painful physical and psychological symptoms. Because women are more frequently the primary caregiver to children, men may face changes in their relationship with their children, resulting in feelings of isolation.

Because of their unique needs, widowers, particularly those who lack close friends and family with whom they can talk about their loss and grief, are urged to attend support group meetings or find a counselor with whom they can share their feelings.

What does the Bible say about... Jesus Christ?

Article written by Douglas Williams

The Trinity or Godhead consists of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God has provided for our salvation through His Son and our Savior, Jesus Christ.

The Bible includes Jesus when it tells about the Godhead in Acts 17:29; Romans 1:20, and Colossians 2:9.

The angel told Joseph that Mary would "bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus; for He shall save his people from their sins" (Matthew 1:21). Jesus means Jehovah (God, or the Lord) is salvation. Jesus is the personal name given to Jesus and other names and titles describe who He is.

In Isaiah 7:14, the prophecy is given "a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel," and Matthew 1:18-25 tells us that Jesus is the fulfillment of that prophecy. Matthew 1:23 states that the "name Immanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us."

The name Christ may better be referred to as a title meaning "the anointed one," and corresponding to the Messiah of the Old Testament.

The New Testament tells us how and when Jesus came to the earth as was predicted by the Old Testament. As a person of the Godhead He is eternal; He has always existed, but He became "God in human flesh" when He came into this world being born of the virgin Mary. Read John 1:1-14 showing us that Jesus was in the beginning with God, even as the plural pronouns during the creation described in Genesis 1, also show the presence and work of not only the Father, but the Son and Holy Spirit. Genesis 1:26 begins, "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness..."

The books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John tell of Jesus ministry: life, work, teachings, miracles, etc., while on this earth. Then He gave His life's blood as He was crucified on the cross for our sins, was buried, and gloriously and triumphantly raised from death making our salvation from sin possible as we are obedient to His will in faith, repentance, confession, and baptism.

Are you in Christ and living for Him? We would be happy to study God's word with you, and help you in learning more about Jesus and obeying Him.

** The Order of Andrew

Pollsters report that the largest percentage of church members visited their church the first time because a relative, friend, neighbor, or coworker invited them. Such statistics are significant because they show how few people choose a church on the basis of professional clergy-type contact and influence. The true evangelists are people of the pew friendship evangelism has proven to be far more effective than formal calling programs or any other structured outreach. Andrew is a classic case-in-point. After being with Jesus for a while one day, he went to his brother, Simon, with good news. Perhaps no one else could have been as effective as Andrew in bringing Peter to Christ these brothers knew each other intimately, and trusted each other fully. Peter might have looked askance at a stranger who claimed to have found the Messiah. But he listened to Andrew and went himself to see Jesus. The surest way to carry out the commission of Christ is for us who are Christians to evangelize our own private worlds — the people with whom we regularly come in contact. The most likely Prospects are those who will trust our judgement and respect our convictions. -- R.W.B.

The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Spring break is just around the corner for the students and teachers all across the state, and as a longtime school bus driver I can assure you I have had the dates circled since the beginning of the school year. It has always seemed that once we get past the week long break the rest of the school year flies by, and this year when we head back there will be less than forty days left on the school year. Not that I am counting!

For what it is worth....

*** Elba High School will be looking for its fifth head football coach in the last eight years after head coach Marc Sieving announced last week he had resigned to take over the program at Dothan's Northside Methodist Academy. Sieving posted a 51-11 record in his five seasons at Elba to become the fourth winningest coach ever to wear the black and gold, and worked as hard as any coach the Tigers ever had to lead the players to success on and off the field. I talked with Coach Sieving at least once a week during the season and consider him to be a true friend, and while he will be missed, I know the powers to be will find another winner to lead the Tigers, which since 2004 have compiled a record of 190-65.

*** It has been a rough couple of games for the Elba Tigers as they dropped three straight games by a combined score of 38-3 and now have to regroup and sweep the rest of their area series to have any chance at making the post-season playoffs. The Tigers played well early in the season and appeared to be headed for a winning season, but during the three-game skid they managed only four hits, committed 14 errors and watched as their pitchers issued 21 walks. I drive by the field every day and on every off-day the players and coaches are working hard to improve at all positions, and I believe they will regroup and add some wins to their record real soon.

*** The Lady Tigers only got in one game last week due to expected bad weather late in the week and let a possible area road win slip away in a loss to perennial power Brantley. Elba had the lead late and seemed ready to pull off an upset, but found out then hard way that against good teams it ain't over until the last out is made, and was left wondering what could have been. There is a lot of softball left on the schedule and I know as the girls keep working hard to improve there will be a bunch more chances to win a lot of games.

*** It was another busy week around the area in both baseball and softball, and while there were a few surprises, everything went pretty much as expected. On the baseball field, New Brockton lost to Brantley and Arifton, but battled in both games and is definitely getting better every time it hits the field; Kinston enjoyed an 18-5 win over Samson and is much better than anyone may realize after playing just a handful of games; Zion Chapel picked up a big win over 5A Carroll, as well as county foes Elba and Kinston, and is beginning to pick up speed; and, Brantley got two wins after a wild 20-10 loss to Straughn and has to be a solid favorite to win the area. Over on the softball field, New Brockton got a much-needed win over Geneva County and maybe the shot of confidence will be all it needed to turn the page into becoming a big winner; Kinston added big wins over Providence Christian and Ashford and is only getting better and better as the season goes along; Zion Chapel battled 5A power Houston Academy on even terms in a 3-0 loss and is starting to look as good as expected; and, Brantley split two games and is struggling at times, but is still the team to beat every time it takes the field.

*** Anyone waiting for the Kinston Lady Bulldogs to run out of athletes on the softball field may have to wait a long time, as they upped their record to 19-2 last week at a tournament in Dothan. The Lady Bulldogs did lose their first two games of the season after a 17-game winning streak, but the losses were to 6A Spanish Fort and 7A Enterprise, and since the Kinston varsity was also in a tournament, there is no doubt at least a couple of other players were playing on the varsity team that were eligible to play JV ball, and would have made the team even better. From where I sit it looks like no end in sight for softball success down at Kinston!

*** In closing.... While there is no doubt the SEC has been the best basketball conference in the nation all season and Auburn deserved to be ranked number one in the nation, I have to believe that Florida may very well be the best team heading into the NCAA tournament. The pressure of being #1 for so long, as well as nagging injuries, took an obvious toll on the Tigers and they are limping just a bit heading to the dance. There is probably a dozen or so teams that have a shot at cutting down the nets, and that is why they call it 'March Madness.'

Elba Tigers drop opening area series

The Elba Tigers opened area play last week against Red Level and dropped the first two games of the 'best of three' series 14-0 and 11-3 as their recent struggles continued.

The Tigers began the area series on Thursday afternoon in Red Level and managed only two base runners in a 14-0 loss. A leadoff triple ignited Red Level's 9-run first inning explosion, while it combined two hits with six walks and two hit batters to circle the bases and grab the big early lead. The 9-0 lead stood until the bottom of the fourth, when Red Level combined two hits with two walks and two hit batters to plate five runs to push its lead to 14-0.

Jay Wilson drew a walk and stole a base to lead Elba, while Brady Johnson also reached on a walk as the Tigers failed to get a hit. Macon Hughes, Nicholas Parker, Brady Johnson and Dylan Holley combined to pitch four innings and allowed five earned runs on six hits and seven walks.

The Tigers hosted Red Level on Friday afternoon and after an exciting start never got back on track in an 11-3 setback. Elba came out ready to swing the bats in the bottom of the first inning as a walk to Jay Wilson was followed by a single by Brady Johnson and a two-run double by Powell Bane as the Tigers jumped ahead 2-1. Red Level combined a walk and three hits with two outs in the second to regain the lead at 5-2, and while the Tigers did close to within 5-3 in the third when Johnathan Edwards led off with a single and after stealing second and third scored on a sacrifice fly by Jaden Baker, they failed to add to their run total and watched as Red Level took charge and pulled away for the 11-3 win.

Powell Bane had 1 hit and 2 rbi's to lead Elba at the plate, while Brady Johnson and Johnathan Edwards both added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 2 stolen bases, and Jay Wilson scored 1 run. Wilson and Easton McKelvy combined to pitch seven innings and allowed three earned runs on eight hits and seven walks.

Lady Tigers fall 7-3 in area opener to Brantley

The Elba Lady Tigers began area play last Tuesday afternoon with a disappointing 7-3 road loss to the Brantley Lady Bulldogs.

Elba jumped out to a 2-0 first inning lead when Mary B. O'Neal was hit by a pitch and Ana Caldwell delivered a two-out, two-run home-run, and carried the lead into the fourth inning as Lady Tiger pitcher Ayrika Caldwell blanked the Lady Bulldogs and struck out eight Brantley batters.

The Lady Tigers upped their lead to 3-0 in the top of the fourth when Hillary Hudson reached on a walk, stole second and third, and scored on a passed ball. However, Brantley showed signs of life at the plate in the bottom of the inning and pulled within 3-1 when Marley Kilcrease ripped a one-out double, moved to third on a passed ball and raced home on a sacrifice fly off the bat of Alex Grimes.

Elba was still on top 3-1 heading into the bottom of the fifth, but Brantley took advantage of three hits, three walks and three errors to break loose for six runs as the Lady Bulldogs moved ahead 7-3. Brantley put two runners on base via a walk with two outs to light the fifth inning fireworks, while Emma Crawley reached on an infield hit to drive in one run, Coco Stamps followed with a two-run single and later scored on a passed ball to put Brantley on top 5-3, and Savannah Nichols blasted a key two-run double as the Lady Bulldogs grabbed a 7-3 advantage.

Mary B. O'Neal hit a leadoff single in the sixth, only to be stranded on the base paths, and the Lady Tigers went down in order in the seventh as they dropped their area opener 7-3.

Ana Caldwell had 1 hit, a two-run homer, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's to lead Elba at the plate, while Mary B. O'Neal added 1 hit and scored 1 run, and Hillary Hudson scored 1 run and had 2 stolen bases. Ayrika Caldwell pitched six innings and allowed three earned runs on four hits and six walks, while striking out 14.

Coco Stamps had 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's to lead Brantley at the plate, while Emma Crawley added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi; Marley Kilcrease added 1 hit and scored 2 runs; and, Savannah Nichols added 1 hit and 2 rbi's. Alex Grimes pitched seven innings and allowed three earned runs on two hits and two walks, while striking out 14.

Elba will take a week off in the coming days for spring break.

COACH MARC SIEVING

Seiving resigns as Elba football coach

The Elba Tigers are looking for their fifth head football coach in the past eight years after the sudden resignation of Coach Marc Sieving, last week.

Sieving, the fourth winningest coach in the rich history of Elba Tiger football, resigned after five seasons at the helm with an overall record of 51-11, and back-to-back semifinal appearances in the state playoffs.

In making the announcement of his resignation in a Facebook post, Sieving stated, "It is with a heavy heart that I have decided to resign as the Elba Tiger coach and retire from 27 years of public school teaching. I feel truly blessed to have had the opportunity to coach some of the greatest kids and work with some outstanding coaches. The support this town shows on Friday Nights is second to none. I will be leaving with wonderful memories and so many new friends. Elba is truly a special place!"

"To all the players, past and present, thank you for your hard work, dedication and heart. Each of you have contributed to this program in a great way and I am incredibly proud of all we have achieved together. I am even more excited to see you grow into successful men in life."

"I want to thank all the staff at Elba High School who support this team in so many ways. Having so any people willing to help played a huge role in providing a great experience for our boys."

"To the community, thank you for all your support. Our players truly love playing for you in the MACK! All of you make winning in Tiger Stadium a very tough thing to do for our opponents."

"Thank you to so many! I feel honored to have held this position and I will always be pulling for the Elba Tigers!"

Published reports in the days following his resignation stated that Sieving had accepted the role of head football coach at Northside Methodist Academy, a private school in Dothan.

"He has agreed to come and be the football coach here," stated Northside Methodist athletic director Mike Mordecai, in a published report. "We are extremely excited to have him. The one thing that stood out was how detailed he was in what he wants to do and how he goes about doing it, including getting the kids in the weight room and everything else that goes on in the football program. It was impressive."

Northside Methodist posted an 0-10 record last season in part due to dwindling numbers of players and injuries. Due to an expected low number of players expected this season, school officials have made the decision to play only its region opponents.

"We explained our situation at school here in struggling with numbers at times, added Mordecai, "and he is looking for forward to the challenge."

Northside Methodist has been a member of the Alabama High School Athletic Association for six years, after six years in the Alabama Independent School Association, and has posted a winning record only once in 12-years on the gridiron. As an AHSAA member, Northside Methodist has posted a record of 14-37. Sieving will be the six head football coach since the school began playing football back in 2014.
